Rationing Board Issues Warnings On Point System

Advices Everyone To Get Book 2 In Feb.

With the approach of the point rationing program for food for civilians, War Price and Rationing Board No. 31-3 today warned all Daly City families of the importance of getting their new ration books at the schools during the registration in February.

Everyone was cautioned against waiting until after the registration is over, then going to the rationing board office to get their new books (book 2). Reason for this warning is because of the vast amount of detail work that has to be done by the board following the registration in the schools. Little time can be spared to passing out ration books at the board office, according to Mrs. C. F. Day, board secretary.

"Unless every family in this area gets their ration books at the schools at the designated time they are liable to find themselves out of a ration book for a few days and without means to buy foods subject to rationing," Mrs. Day warned. "The place to get your ration books is at the schools."

R. L. Crane jr., superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School district, announced yesterday that the three elementary schools in Daly City will be used to pass out ration book 2. Following are the schools and their addresses:

Woodrow Wilson school, 43 Miriam street; Crocker school, 649 Bellevue avenue; and Jefferson school, 14 Alemany street. Everyone is instructed to go to the school nearest their home.

No date has yet been set by the OPA for issuing the ration books and the time for point rationing of canned goods to begin. Reason for this, Mrs. Day pointed out, is because the national headquarters will not set a date until the local boards have all

Lions Plan Gay Ladies Night Event

Dinner and an evening of dancing will be the program when the Daly City-Colma Lions club entertains their ladies at Colma Italian Cafe, Saturday, January 23. Festivities will begin at 7 p. m. with dinner, and the dancing will end at 12 midnight. Closing time will be sharp because of the new time limit set by the state board of equalization.

Plans are being made for the event, and music will be furnished by accordion and drums.

Ladies Night is held several times annually by Lions club members for their wives and girl friends.

Tire Inspection Deadlines Nearing

Tomorrow is the last day for owners of trucks and commercial vehicles to report to service stations for their first tire inspection under the mileage rationing program, the Office of Defense Transportation has announced.

All truck owners must have the tires checked on their vehicles either today or tomorrow. Owners of all passenger cars were also urged to get their tires inspected as soon as possible. Passenger car owners have until Sunday, January 31, to complete the checkup of their tires. This is a rule which must be followed, according to OPA regulations for mileage rationing.

Service stations are the official tire inspection stations. The tire record, issued with "A" books in November, must be shown to the tire inspector.

DALY CITY'S WADE H. CLAY DIES

WHOLE COMMUNITY MOURNS LOSS OF CIVIC LEADER

All Daly City mourned the loss of one of her most beloved citizens, this week, with the death of Judge Wade H. Clay, Monday morning at his home, 79 Guadalupe street.

Besides hundreds of admirers in Daly City, Judge Clay left a host of friends in San Francisco, and throughout San Mateo county, where he has served as justice of peace of the first township for the past eight years. During that period, he also served Daly City as city judge until ill health forced him to resign the office in December, 1941. However, Judge Clay resumed his law practice at his office, 4 Wellington avenue, but illness again overtook him several weeks ago.

A resident of Daly City for the past seventeen years, Judge Clay was 75 years old at the time of his death. A quiet unassuming man, Judge Clay had all the dignity of his profession, yet was possessed with traits of friendliness and good fellowship that won for him many friends. While he was known to be stern in carrying out his judicial duties, Judge Clay had a keen sense of understanding in dealing with the thousands who appeared before his justice court.

Judge Clay was born in Farmington, Missouri. In early manhood Judge Clay taught school in

ATTORNEY CLAY

Missouri and Colorado. He came to San Francisco in 1895 and worked in the San Francisco Police department for eight years. During this time he was studying law under a private tutor, and, in 1907, passed the Bar examination. Judge Clay practiced law in San Francisco for sixteen years.

He came to Daly City in 1925, practicing law here, and was elected as justice of the peace, first township, San Mateo county in 1934, the office he served for two successive terms. He took the office of city judge in 1936 along with his county duties.

A distinct honor was bestowed upon Judge Clay in March, 1941, when a ruling of the Superior court raised Judge Clay's justice court to the Class A circuit, representing the first township in the county to receive the honor.

Judge Clay is survived by his widow, Mrs. Christine Clay; Mrs. George Ballantyne Brown, Mrs. Robert E. Searby, and the late Mrs. Helen Clay Collins, daughters; Robert Brown, Clay and Robert Searby, and the late Clayton Collins, grandsons.

Judge Clay was a member of Mission Lodge No. 169 of the Masonic Order; Crocker Chapter No. 382 of the Order of the Eastern Star; the Last Man club of the San Francisco Police department; San Mateo County Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose; and the San Mateo County Bar association.

Masonic funeral services were conducted, yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of Mission Lodge No. 169, of the Masonic Order, from the W. C. Lasswell company chapel. Interment was at Mount Olivet Memorial park in Colma.

The large funeral procession was headed by a five unit police escort, composed of two highway patrol motors and three police motors, one from San Bruno, one from South San Francisco, and the third from Daly City.

Sailor Confesses Theft To Chief James Reardon

Daly City police broke a San Francisco robbery case shortly before noon, Monday, when Walter Smith, a United States sailor, confessed to Police Chief James G. Reardon that he had stolen a case of whiskey from a liquor store in San Francisco's Ocean View district.

The seaman, with a companion, has been held since Sunday morning by local police, and both were turned over to Inspector Ed Paul of the San Francisco robbery detail. While the sailor admitted guilt to the theft, his companion, Harold Leib, San Francisco, (civilian) was also taken by San Francisco police for further investigation. Chief Reardon said that San Francisco authorities will probably book the seaman for petty theft.

First discovery of the two men was made, Sunday morning, when Officers Ed Heim and Walter Davis of the Daly City Police department picked up Smith and Leib for disturbing the peace in front of 68 Flounoy street. Police said

May Have To Close Gym At Night Time

Scant attendance at night recreation athletics at the Jefferson Union high school gymnasium may result in closing the gymnasium at night, high school officials announced, yesterday.

In encouraging continuance of the night sports program, held each night, Monday through Friday, at the gymnasium, Miss Ella Redkey, physical education instructor, said that the gymnasium is open to the public. All persons interested in taking part in the night sports program are urged to go to the Jefferson gymnasium any week night. The gymnasium is open from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. although the swimming pool is closed.

"If you don't see lights around the gymnasium it is because the building has been shaded on account of the dimout," Miss Redkey said, "but the gym is still open."

Basketball is played on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings. Basketball teams who wish to schedule games at the gymnasium may call either of the high school coaches, Glenn South

Arch Banfield Rushes To Rescue

Arch Banfield, whose wide variety of ex-officio duties as poundmaster in Daly City found him in hand-to-hand combat with a raccoon one fine fall day over a year ago, added another to his series of sensational triumphs, Thursday night. This time, Banfield practically scaled the side of a house at 733 Bellevue avenue to a second story window to rescue a baby girl from a locked-in bathroom. Admittedly, Banfield did have a ladder of 6 foot length or so, but the window was twelve feet above the ground. That was some help, Arch agreed, but there was still need for a

Urge Housewives To Avoid "Scandal"

In warning Daly City housewives against a possible "tin scandal" similar to that in San Francisco, R. L. Crane jr., local salvage chairman, made two rulings to school children for collecting tin cans in Daly City homes.

1. No tin cans will be accepted by school pupils unless they have been properly prepared by cutting the ends, washing the cans and flattening them.

2. Nothing but tin cans will be accepted in the tin collection (bottles, rags, and other trash is not to be given to the children); it is a collection for tin, not garbage.

San Francisco's highly publicized tin scandal revolves around the mistake of San Francisco donors in throwing everything in the tin pile, including garbage, bottles, rags, and papers.

Crane stressed the importance of preparing the tin cans for saving both manpower at the detinning plant and trips to the plant.

"If we have a carload of tin cans that are not flattened, they take up a lot of unnecessary space in the truck, and we are not able to send out as much tin as we could if they are flattened," Crane explained.

"There is much wasted space in a carload of tin cans unless they are flattened, and that calls for more trips to the detinning plant in South San Francisco, and more rubber and gasoline."

Schedule First C. D. Rehearsal Of 1943

In the first rehearsal of 1943, Daly City's Civilian Defense Council will supervise a control board drill for twenty volunteer workers in the civilian defense control center, tonight at 8 p. m., in the sheltered basement of the city hall.

Primarily, the test will be used for operation of the control center and its recent changes. To eliminate confusion and delay in getting messages through to block services in the community in time of disaster, many new suggestions have been utilized.

Among the numerous changes there, one of the most important is the telephone service, now operating with four out-going phones, one of which is a direct line to the PX board in the police headquarters, and three incoming phones.

Outgoing telephones will be used by heads of services for discussion of services for disaster.

Colma In Quest Of City Attorney

In search of a city attorney to fill the vacancy in the Town of Colma's legal department, the town council appeared likely to select a man for the job from Daly City ranks, it was learned at a council session, Monday morning.

Judge John J. Fahey jr., newly elected justice of the peace here, and F. E. Hoffmann, city attorney for Daly City, are among the outstanding prospects for the Colma office. On a motion by Councilman Fred Lane, a committee was appointed by Mayor Paul Delucchi to interview both officials. Councilman Mattrup Jensen was named as the committee of one to interview Hoffmann and Judge Fahey. A special meeting will be called next week to make the appointment.

Colma's major problem, the flow of excess waste water through Cypress Lawn and Holy Cross cemeteries, again headed discussion at Monday's meeting, and again, plans to remedy the situation hit another snag. Councilman Jensen, who sought help from the San Mateo County Planning commission for construction of a drainage system

William Sweeney To Be Sworn In Tomorrow At 3:30

Discuss Problem Of Ambulance Service

William J. Sweeney, Daly City's new city judge succeeding R. C. MacArthur, will be sworn into office, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 p. m., when he will take the bench at his first court session.

A pioneer resident of Daly City, Sweeney is proprietor of one of the community's oldest business firms, Bill's Garage, 6806 Mission street. He was appointed by the city council at their regular meeting, Monday night. The appointment was preceded by the resignation of R. C. MacArthur, who has taken up the duties of county tax collector.

Naming of the judge headed the council's business, Monday. Aside from that, the council devoted the evening chiefly to Daly City's ambulance problem, following complaints of service outside the city limits. After the outbreak of war and the subsequent closing of two private ambulance services in Daly City, the fire department furnished the city with a fire truck converted into an ambulance. According to complaints to the council, the fire truck-ambulance has been used for cases outside the city limits.

The council decided to call a joint meeting with the fire commissioners for the purpose of setting a policy for future ambulance service in the city.

Discussion of the licensing of pin balls and other amusement devices was renewed at the meeting. Several objections were that the name, and business address of the Diplomas are to be presented to graduates by Mrs. Stella Jensen and Remi Sanders, members of the board of trustees. No awards of any kind will be given this year. Guest speakers are yet

Give 89 Draftees Physical Exams

Eighteen Daly City men and eleven from the Colma area were among 89 inductees from Daly City Draft Board No. 103 given their physical examinations in San Francisco, yesterday.

They were examined at the Induction board, 49 Fourth street, in San Francisco, and those who passed the examination and were inducted will leave for the Monterey Reception center, next week. Reports have not yet been returned to the local board of office by the examining physicians.

Leader of the inductees who reported, yesterday, was Joseph Chandler Lynch, 101 Wellington avenue, son of Dr. W. C. Lynch of Daly City. Assistants were Arthur Lindgren, a transfer from Huntington Park, and Earle Leonard Ralston, 550 Templeton avenue. Preceding their induction, yesterday, the contingent received final instructions from the board at the city hall in a meeting, Tuesday.

"Panama Hattie" Now At Daly City

One of the most diversified musicals to reach the screen in many months is Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Panama Hattie," which opens tonight at the Daly City theatre. Starring Red Skelton and Ann Sothern, the film is fast-moving with an excellent human story, an exhilarating comedy routine, elaborate production and tunes you'll whistle on your way out.

As Panama Hattie, a night club entertainer with a heart of gold, Miss Sothern has one of the finest roles in her career. In love with a soldier, Dan Dailey jr., the scenes in which she meets his daughter, Jackie Horner, and overcomes the child's dislike of her, are especially appealing.

In addition to the four Cole Porter songs, "Let's Be Buddies," "Fresh as a Daisy," "Just One of Those Things" and "I've Still Got My Health," are five other numbers, "Good Neighbors," "Panama Hattie," "The Son of a Gun Who Picks on Uncle Sam," "At the Savoy" and "The Sping."

Red Skelton continues his amazing stride in the cinema heavens. Here he is one of the sailors who have sworn to protect Hattie from one and all.

Another treat is the singing of Virginia O'Brien who drops her dead-pan technique for the first time. The byplay between her and Alan Mowbray is excellent.

"Panama Hattie" is lavish with music and big production numbers featuring dancers and singers of the Central American type.

ABOUT TOWN

Robert Clark, U. S. Navy, has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Caine, 395 Frankfort street.

Raymond E. Kohman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kohman, 814 Bellevue avenue, left Friday, December 18, for the Naval training station in Idaho. He attended local grammar schools and was graduated from Jefferson Union high school in January, 1941.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Bedegrew, Colma, are the proud parents of a son born, December 30, in San Francisco. This is their second son.

Mrs. DeBono Gives Party For 2 Sons

Mrs. Valerie De Bono gave a birthday party for her two sons, Sunday, at her home, 298 Oliver street. oth sons' birthdays fall in this month, Vincent on January 9 and Theodore on January 11.

Both Mrs. De Bono's sons are in the service. Vincent is a seaman in the merchant marines, and Theodore is an army corporal. A third son, George, is a private in the army.

At the party, an announcement was made of the engagement of her son Theodore to Miss Iva Sheldon, San Francisco. No date has yet been set for the wedding. A recent San Francisco newspaper story told the news in this manner:

"Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Sheldon of 166 Thirteenth street are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Iva, to Corporal Theodore DeBono of Daly City. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Sheldon is a graduate of Cumberland, Wisconsin, schools. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Valerie DeBono of Daly City. The news was told at a dinner party on Christmas Day, given at the home of the H. A. Sheldons."

to divert the flow of water, told fellow councilmen that he was informed that a sanction of the county engineer was necessary before the planning commission could make a move.

"The county engineer's approval doesn't appear very likely," Jensen added. "Technically, there is a state law which prohibits changing the flow of water from its natural course."

The excess water comes from the San Bruno mountains primarily, flowing down a gorge in the hills just north of the cemetery properties. Proposals have been made to divert the water flow

NOW AT DALY CITY THEATRE

TROUBLE MAKERS . . . Marsha Hunt sends a message which will lead Red Skelton, Ben Blue and Rags Ragland on a merry chase after saboteurs, in this scene from M-G-M's "Panama Hattie," now playing at the Daly City theatre. Carl Esmond looks on as Joe Yule takes the slip of paper. Red Skelton and Ann Sothern are co-starred in the musical.

Veteran Firemen Initiate Two Men

Two new members were initiated and newly elected officers for 1943 were officially installed at the first meeting of the new year for the Daly City Veteran Firemen's association, January 6.

The new members, who are now full fledged veterans, are Comrades Richard Ennis and James Welch. Both men are currently serving as members of the Daly City Fire department, and have been firemen for over the five year required period.

Fire Chief A. P. Chesney conducted the installation ceremonies for the officers elected at a previous meeting. He installed the following officers: J. Kester, president; E. Roemer, first vice-president; Edwin Goldkuhl jr., second vice-president; Gus Ford, secretary; Larry Shaw, treasurer; Albert Sundstrom, marshal; H. W. A. Rickmann, chaplain; J. Hesslein, chef. Two of the new officers, Treasurer Shaw and Chaplain Rickmann are past presidents.

The new drill team discharged the duties of the old team at the meeting, as many members of the latter were absent.

The two new members, Welch and Ennis, both told stories which were enjoyed by their audience.

Following roll call, a buffet supper was served by Comrade Chief Hesslein.

Mrs. Joseph Spanier, mother of the infant, called the Daly City Police department for help, Thursday night. She told Chief James G. Reardon that her little girl was locked in the bathroom. The door was locked from the inside but the little girl had crawled over the side of the bathtub and couldn't get out.

Officer George Hopman responded with Amiable Arch, who scoffed at getting a longer ladder when they saw their problem. Their 6 foot ladder was placed on a table, and Banfield climbed to the end of the ladder. He shinned up the rest of the way, getting a hold on the window ledge. But his troubles had just begun.

Arch succeeded in getting halfway in the tiny window, but that's all—just half. It looked for a while like another call would have to be sent to rescue Arch. But he finally made it inside the bathroom at the sacrifice of the buttons off his shirt, and unlocked the door. The little girl was recovered from the bathtub.

east of Holy Cross cemetery.

Another complication that arises if the project is limited to a city job is the virtual impossibility of getting men and material for the work.

Shortly before the close of the meeting, Police Chief Joseph Cavalli informed the council that he would begin the issuance of business licenses to Colma proprietors.

Gannon At Farragut

Eugene J. Gannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gannon, 127 Winchester street, is now in training at Farragut, Idaho. He joined the Navy, November 27.

Gannon was graduated from St. James high school in 1941 and was employed by Dohrman Hotel and Supply company as an apprentice metal-smith, before he entered the services.

How to "PREPARE" Tin Cans for War Duty

UNCLE SAM NEEDS YOUR TIN!

FROM CANS TO CANNON!

Every bit of tin that you can save is needed by Uncle Sam for machine gun mounts, for hand grenades, bombers and destroyers! Enough tin can be collected in our community to provide the metal needed for a destroyer!

Don't be a waster—be a waster-warden, and save tin cans!

You will also help save time if you prepare the cans correctly, according to the diagram above. When you have a box of PROPERLY PREPARED tins ready, take or send them to your nearest grammar school. Daly City grammar school pupils are acting as collectors, but if none contacts you, you can take the tins directly to the school.

While sleeping in a room with a gas heater on, Joseph Rajshi and his wife, tenants at the Motorville Auto courts, 7500 Mission street, were overcome by gas fumes when the heater went out, early Sunday morning.

The two people were brought to consciousness with no apparent physical trouble soon after, Daly City police said. Local police were summoned by the night desk clerk at the motor court office. An ambulance and police officers arrived at the motor court soon after, but the couple had already recovered.

Jeff Cagers Meet S. S. F. Tomorrow

Bidding strongly for PAL basketball honors, this season, the South San Francisco high Warriors will clash with the Jefferson high varsity, tomorrow afternoon, at the Jefferson gymnasium. Tip-off is scheduled for 3:15 p. m.

Already with a 21 to 19 win over San Jose under their belts, South City will be trying for their second PAL victory when they play Jefferson's Indians. Coach Elman Rose, Jefferson mentor, has arranged for the varsity game to be played first. It will be followed by the lightweight game.

Jefferson got off to a bad start, last week, in their opening league game when they were walloped, 53-23, by a fast-moving Burlingame high quintet. The game was rough, and few fouls were called, as both teams were in a mad scramble for the loose ball most of the time. A pair of fast Panther forwards with unerring eyes, stacking up Burlingame points, were really what spelled disaster for the Jeffs.

The 130's contest was more of a game even though Jefferson again took a loss, this time 27-21. Playing a larger team of strictly 130's, the Jeff outfit is a mixed squad of four 120 pounders and only three 130's, but they staged a nip and tuck game with Burlingame throughout. In the last few minutes, Burlingame pulled away from them a few points to win. Ted Prescott, Jefferson center, was the standout player for the locals.

Point Rationing

Considerable confusion was reported during the gasoline rationing registration when the dates were announced even before the forms were printed, resulting in numerous postponements and conflicting announcements. Many places were named as registration headquarters before the management had been notified.

Although the rationing board announced a two week period of registration in the schools will be set sometime next month, Crane, who has charge of local distribution said that it was likely that only three days will be used here to pass out ration book 2. A similar course in all schools in the county will likely be taken, he added.

Civilian Defense

owner of the amusement machine did not appear on some licenses. Referring the matter to the police department, the council was informed that they now appear on licenses.

Reduction of water rates for victory garden raisers was a suggestion made by Councilman Edmund Cavagnaro and referred to future council business. According to Cavagnaro's plan, the rates would be cut according to the square feet of ground cultivated.

A party of nine city officials was made up to attend the meeting of the Peninsula division of the League of California Cities. The meeting is to be held Thursday, January 21, in San Mateo.

A report on the number of fire alarms turned in during the past year, submitted to the Board of Fire Underwriters by Assistant Fire Chief A. J. Bodien, was read to the council by B. C. Ross, city clerk.

Commencement Date Is January 27

to be announced. Music will be furnished by the orchestra, under the direction of Oscar Busch.

Highlight of senior week activities comes tomorrow evening at 8 p. m. when the senior ball, an invitational affair, is held at the school. The Indians of Rhythm will play and decorations (ssshhhh—it's a deep dark secret) are described as "unique."

Senior advisors have been Mrs. George Readeau and Stanley Martin. The able committees have included: senior ball—Frank Feno, chairman; Newton Kile, Joe Rodriguez, Eugene Snow, Joe Armanino, Kay Lopresti Tillie Castro, Mary Sue Denton, Dolores Mardecich, Gloria Tooth, Sophie Sikeotis, Beatrice Bordson, Fred Waterman; picture—Andrew Parodi, chairman; Warren McHugh, Shirley Johnston; flower—Lorraine Marcucci, chairman; Nadine Bledsoe, Dorothy Knight; Jinx—Jack Faulk, chairman; Ruth Smith, Ed Allen, Fern Openshaw, Lowell Coy, Dolores Mardecich; cap and gown—Marion Reardon, chairman; John Hernan, Gerald Root, Ruth Cabano; sweater—Bill Freeman, chairman; Elmer Orner, Marjorie Anderson, Aline Johnson; announcement—Genevieve Thomas, chairman; Ray Cabano, John Hernan.

Formerly, these phones were operated by operators, and the message had to be relayed from the fire chief to the volunteer operator before it finally reached the fire company. Similar time-saving changes have been made in other services, including police, medical, first aid, and utilities.

Enlargement of the control center and a larger city map are other improvements which are being made. The tags on the control board have also been made larger and more legible from a distance.

THANK YOU!

The people who live in the cities, towns and villages along Southern Pacific's lines in the West have just provided a fine example of war-time cooperation.

We think this cooperation deserves recognition and we want to say "thank you" . . . since Southern Pacific was primarily concerned. And we're quite sure the many thousands of men in uniform who benefitted too, would also like to join us in this expression of appreciation.

Early in December we were faced with the problem of providing transportation during the holidays for a very large number of men in the armed services who were to be given holiday furloughs. Because of the pressure of war traffic on our equipment . . . cars and locomotives . . . we knew that we could not provide transportation for all these service men and the normal number of civilian holiday travelers too.

So we arranged a somewhat drastic and extensive program requiring coach reservations for virtually all trains, and set aside a major portion of both Pullman and coach space for the service men. Then we ran advertising telling people what our problem was, and why we could not take care of everyone who would like to travel during the holidays. We asked people not to "Try the Train."

As a result many people gave up holiday trips they very much wanted to make. The amount of civilian travel, compared with December, 1941, was considerably reduced and we took care of the service men in good shape. There was comparatively little congestion, and all essential travel was accommodated.

So we know that people generally have cooperated . . . and we give you all a hearty "thank you."

May we also express our appreciation at this time for your considerate and understanding attitude towards Southern Pacific and its service during the last twelve months?

We hope you will continue to confine your trips, in 1943, to essential travel.

DO YOUR PART

The individual citizen can help relieve the wartime medical problem. Here are suggestions: choose your physician carefully and stick to him. Make appointments for visits as early as possible. Whenever advisable visit the physician's office instead of expecting him to call at your home. Write down all important facts you want to tell him. Tell him all symptoms which have any bearing on your physical welfare. Have confidence in him. Write down his orders and make sure you understand them. Public cooperation can go far toward eliminating the "doctor shortage."

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

THE Book-of-the-Month Club seems to have moved in on the Solomon Islands. For January, the Club has selected "Headhunting in the Solomon Islands," by Caroline Mytinger, which gives the best account we have read to date of what life is like in these South Pacific Isles. Then for February, the book-of-the-month will be "Guadalcanal Diary" by Richard Tregaskis, which brings us right up to the present with the first eye-witness account of the successful invasion by our marines.

CAROLINE MYTINGER

Caroline Mytinger is an attractive young American artist. Together with her friend, Margaret Warner, she spent two and a half years in the South Pacific, headhunting among the natives—who had once been real head-hunters—with a paintbrush. Miss Mytinger wielded the brush; Miss Warner played the ukelele to keep the models quiet.

Their first white model was the huge Scotch Captain Voy of the Mataram, an island steamer. It was a lucky choice, for Captain Voy was loved throughout the South Seas, and his recommendation did a lot toward making their way easier for them.

Their first native model was less satisfactory. In Malaita, the manager of the steamship company offered them one of his workers for a model—told them to go up to his house and wait. They did so, but no one showed up. Disconsolately they started back down a narrow lonely road lined with hibiscus. Then they suddenly heard a piercing scream and a terrifying savage, face smeared with white paint and brandishing a bundle of five-foot spears came toward them. They ran—and the cannibal ran after them, howling as he did so. As they neared the boat, they caught sight of their Captain Voy, shaking with laughter. Their savage pursuer was none other than the promised model. He had been told to clean up for a "pic-a-ture" and he had spent hours doing his native best.

Another time the two girls nearly got themselves in trouble was when they unknowingly left their horse in an egg garden. This was in Tanakombo. The egg garden was a cleared space where the megapodes—a kind of brush turkey—laid their eggs, and every day the native men went there to collect them. But no women. Somehow, they believe, a woman is simply poison to a man's industry. So when Caroline and Margaret appeared for their horse, they were greeted with no welcome. Margaret got them out of that difficulty by whistling. The outraged natives watched her in fascination and one by one they tried to whistle too.

In addition to learning about primitive civilization, the girls picked up a considerable amount of pidgin English. For instance, "sore-leg-along-arm" which, translated, simply means, "sore arm." The reason is that scratched or infected legs are such a common ailment in the South Seas that "sore-leg" has become the equivalent of any sickness, whatsoever. If a native wants to show you he likes you he says, "thankyouverymuchpleasefinday" and if he wants to impress you with one of his possessions—whether it be a fine new pair of safety pins, earrings, a bit of red calico—he will assure you it is "something belong village long time before."

J. D. Vollbrecht Home On 15-Day Furlough

J. D. Vollbrecht, former German and Americanization instructor at Jefferson Union high school, is now home on a 15-day furlough. Vollbrecht, now on leave of absence for the duration, entered the service in March, 1942.

He was first stationed at Monterey and was then transferred to Shepherd field, Texas, where he underwent five weeks of intensive training. At the close of his training he was transferred to the Weather Observing division at Gunter field, Montgomery, Alabama.

Since his arrival at Gunter field, he has been rapidly advanced from first class private to corporal and from corporal to sergeant.

Before his induction into the army he had purchased a home at 372 San Diego avenue. His father, William Vollbrecht, is now living there.

Ice Skating Offers Wintertime Thrills

The huge expanse of ice at Winterland, Post and Steiner streets, has become the center of activity for those who would relive their enjoyment of winter in the East or in the mountains, now inaccessible to many. For those who are new to ice skating also, tremendous forward strides in the popularity of the sport have been made during the past few weeks, according to reports compiled at the big rink.

George J. Campbell, general manager of Winterland, attributes much of the increase to the fact that public interest in skating is mounting to greater proportions through their investment in skates and other equipment. This, he believes is largely due to advancement in skill—the better the skater, the more eager he or she is to own their own skates. He also feels that a central location and a consistently good ice surface have encouraged more people to become acquainted with ice skating as an amusement and a healthful sport.

Writes Verses In Army Hospital

While The Record does not ordinarily publish anyone's poems, it is making an exception, this week, in printing some verses sent us by Private Adolph Kerger, who is in the hospital at Camp Myles Standish in Massachusetts. Kerger, whose Daly City address is 67 Crocker avenue, explains that he and some of his friends in the hospital fell to describing their sentiments about the war in verse. Here's what Kerger had to say:

"While I lie here
In a hospital bed,
I wonder and think
Of the wounded and dead.

All of our buddies
That are over the sea
Are striking and fighting
So we may all be free.

From all walks of life
They have answered the call,
For Democracy's rights
They are giving their all.

We all have folks
That are waiting and pray
For their brave boys
To come home some day.

Our people at home
Are working so hard
To give us the weapons
And the blessings of God.

For it stands to reason
We will make the enemy pay.
We will win this war
For the good old U. S. A."

for your cooperation

To the great number of people who responded to the Government's appeal not to travel over the holidays, we want to extend our sincere thanks.

Your cooperation enabled us to take care of those who had to travel—the men of our armed forces. We are sure that the thousands of service men who were able to get well-earned holiday leaves and furloughs also appreciated your cooperation in making more room for them on the buses.

WHAT ABOUT 1943?

Bus transportation has proved to be a vital necessity to a nation at war.

Today America's bus lines are all performing a tremendous task in transporting, with limited equipment and facilities, millions of additional riders—fighting men and war workers.

In 1943 Greyhound will continue to put all of its resources behind the war effort, to provide transportation for the armed forces, war workers and other essential travelers. And every effort will be made to improve our service as rapidly as war conditions will permit.

At this time all of us of Pacific Greyhound Lines extend to our friends and patrons every good wish for the coming year.

To the suds with Woolens

Each day we homemakers seem to take on added work at home. Many who have never tackled the task of washing woolens at home, are finding themselves confronted with this problem.

IS IT 100% WOOL?

100% wool fabrics and clothes are so labeled. This is more or less of a warning because there are so many synthetic wool fabrics that do not lend themselves to washing. But if it is all wool or wool and cotton, then you're safe to tackle the job yourself.

CHOOSE SOAP CAREFULLY

Choose a reputable granulated soap which dissolves quickly in lukewarm water. Be sure the water is only LUKE warm. This is important. If you're not sure of the temperature, test it with your elbow. It is more sensitive to heat than your hand. It should feel just tepid.

MEASURE THE ARTICLE

Before dousing the article to be washed into the suds, measure it. If it is a sweater, baby clothes or something of that sort, it is well to cut out a paper pattern as a guide for size. Measure blankets and large articles.

ACTUAL WASHING

Squeeze, NEVER RUB, woolen garments in the suds. If the article doesn't come clean in one suds, then squeeze it through a second suds of the same temperature. When clean, squeeze out the water, and rinse in water the same temperature as the washing water.

Rinse twice or until water runs clear of soap. NEVER WRING, but squeeze out excess water.

SHAPING OR HANGING

Sweaters, baby clothes and the like should be pulled back to their original shape. If a pattern is made, lay it on the pattern and pin it in shape. Lay on several thicknesses of bath towel to dry and dry it in the shade, not in the sun.

For blankets and large articles, hang them on the line, being sure they are straight and not pulled askew at the corners. The shade is best for these, too. And a windy day is ideal for washing heavy things like blankets.

If you can't get that — try this

Even though our food dealers' shelves are likely to take on the appearance of Old Mother Hubbard's cupboard during this wartime period, it is still up to the homemaker to keep the family fare in balance with sufficient vitamins, minerals, and other body-building indispensable.

It may mean changing your food habits, but you CAN keep your family well fed in face of limited selections.

FOR YOUR DAILY QUOTA OF VITAMIN A

Look to your dairy products, eggs, sundry meats such as liver, heart and kidney, oily fish, leafy green and yellow vegetables. If one "A" food is not available, then turn to another.

GET YOUR VITAMIN B

From whole grain cereals, enriched flour and bread, milk, eggs, liver, kidney, fruits, and vegetables. Think of these when lean meats are not available.

YOU'LL FIND VITAMIN C

In oranges, lemons, grapefruit, tomatoes and berries. Leafy raw vegetables, especially cabbage, can be called upon for "C" should there be need.

MINERALS ARE NECESSARY

You won't have to go mining for these minerals. But they should be given careful consideration in the menu.

Calcium—Of course dairy products, especially milk and cheese, are the best source, but the pinch hitters are molasses, carrots, cabbage, broccoli, and dried figs.

Iron—Liver, heart and kidney are about the best sources of this all important mineral. But too, there's whole grain cereals, enriched flour and breads, lean meats, egg yolks and leafy green vegetables.

PROTEIN AND ENERGY FOODS

Proteins—These are the sustaining foods around which our menus are usually built. Meat, of course, is most universally favored. But when the family quota is exhausted, then think of the menu in terms of cheese, eggs, dried beans and nuts. They do a similar job as meat, and you'll find some of them available.

Energy Foods—Somehow or other, we seem to get our share of these, so there's no need for worry here. Breads, desserts, potatoes, in other words, starches and sweets, are seldom neglected on any menu.

WE'VE PLENTY TO EAT

There are plenty of nourishing, appetizing foods to be had. It is a matter of manipulating the menu to include all the nutritional necessities. Julia Lee Wright's Family Circle articles are designed to help you adjust your cookery to a wartime basis. You'll benefit by watching for them weekly, and clipping them for future reference.

P. T. A. NEWS

Colma Unit

Mrs. Virginia Lagomarsino, president of Colma P. T. A., today asked all executive board members to note the change in their meeting days. From now on, the board will meet at 1:30 p. m. on the third Tuesday of each month. The meeting will precede the regular monthly whist game.

Monthly whist of the local unit is scheduled for Tuesday, afternoon at 2 p. m., at Jefferson annex.

Mrs. Ray Lagomarsino and Mrs. K. Bock will be in charge. The ladies reminded the board to be present at 1:30 p. m. for their meeting. At the close of the card game, refreshments will be served.

Due to the fact that Mrs. L. Christmas will be unable to entertain members of the sewing group, Thursday, it has been changed to the home of Mrs. A. Dunkel, 224 Paris street, San Francisco.

Mrs. Dunkel announces she will serve a dessert luncheon at 1 p. m.

At the unit's last meeting, Tuesday, January 5, it was decided to hold their annual Founder's Day program during the day-time instead of evening. Reason for change is due to gas rationing and dimout. This year's program is scheduled for Tuesday, February 2, at 2:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

A report was given on the life membership award. Name of the person to be presented will be announced later. Committee members were: Mrs. K. Bock, Mrs. Fred Lane and Mrs. H. Remington.

General Pershing

Illness prevented Mrs. Mildred Rasor, president of General Pershing P. T. A., from presiding at the unit's last meeting, Tuesday, January 5. The group was called to order by Mrs. Sophie Evans, vice-president.

Salute to the Flag was led by Mrs. Constance Filipo, citizenship chairman. Mrs. Louise Eliassen read the collection, followed by the P. T. A. song.

Reports from the various committees were given. Plans for a pop corn sale were discussed; Mrs. Vera Cerrito was named chairman. The sale is scheduled for tomorrow during the children's lunch hour.

"Saving Men and Material" was the topic discussed by Arthur Bodien, guest speaker. The school demonstration was presented at the close of his talk with Miss Helen Engil's class in charge.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Sara Nordgren.

Members of the unit extend their hope of a speedy recovery to their president.

Jefferson High

Presiding over a short executive board meeting, Thursday, January 7, was the Jefferson Union High School P. T. A. President, Mrs. Catherine Foreman. The meeting convened in the school cafeteria.

Those who were present included: Mrs. Foreman, Mrs. Stella Jensen, Seventeenth district president; Mrs. Mary Crane, Mrs. Lillian Thomey, Mrs. James Ferguson, Mrs. Stella Filarsky, Mrs. Vivian Pahlka, Mrs. Lillie Cavagnaro, Mrs. Marie Gehrig, Mrs. Ida Forrest and Mrs. Allene Lehigh.

Several matters were brought up and discussed by the group which will be helpful to the public, according to the ladies.

At the close of the meeting, the ladies adjourned to a card party. Mrs. Foreman and Mrs. Filarsky were in charge.

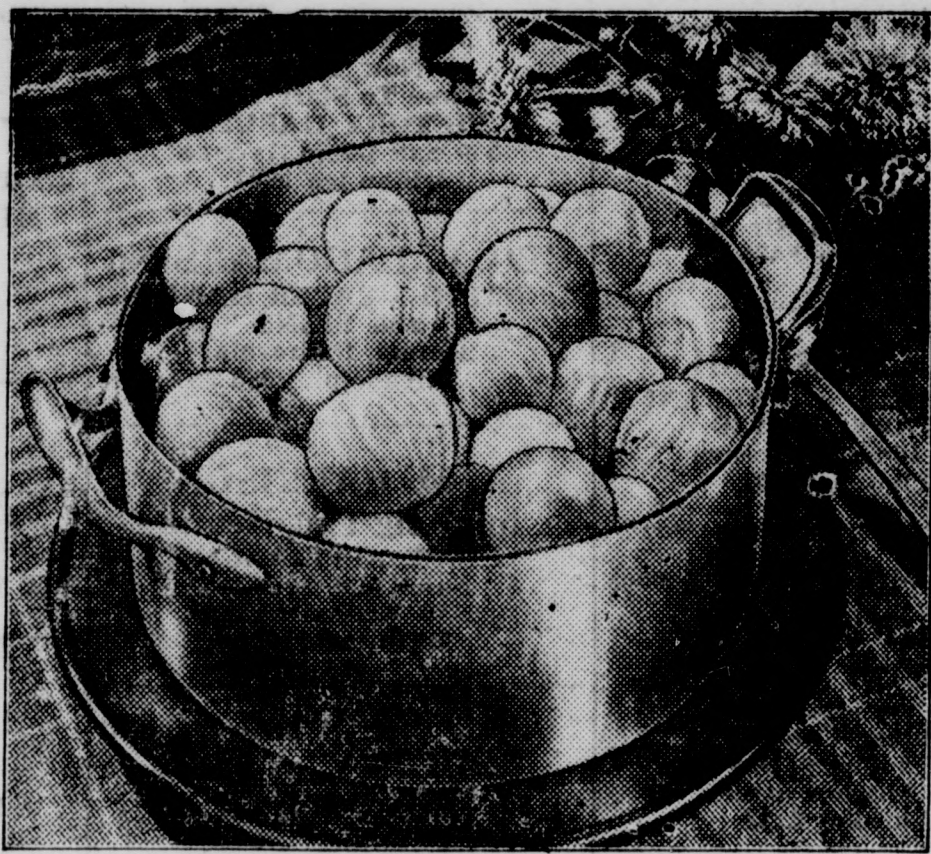

The ladies announce it was a grand success, and that another affair of the same kind will be held at the close of their next executive board meeting, Thursday, February 4. Further details will be given later.

Woodrow Wilson

Board and sewing members met at the home of Mrs. Ida Hanley, 43 Woodrow street, for their monthly meeting, Tuesday.

VEGETABLES . . . as you like 'em

by Dorothy Greig

French Style Onions—a new and delicious way to serve this every day vegetable.

IN old B. V. (Before Vitamins) days we did weird things to vegetables—such as soaking before cooking, boiling long and hard in deep water, peeling skins in thick ribbons. After all that drubbing the poor vegetables arrived on the table looking dejected—and tasting that way, too.

Now we know better. We bake and boil vegetables in their skins where possible. We're stingy with water, very stingy. We keep them tightly covered and never stir them. We cook them quickly, eat immediately. And have discovered, that vegetables treated thus not only are better for us—but have lovely fresh flavor. They're fun to eat!

Having mastered the new technique we can go on from there to add a few flourishes. For instance, the humble little onion fixed this way has new zest and spirit.

A delicious dessert luncheon was served by their hostess.

Main order of business on the group's calendar was the finishing up of plans for the January rummage sale. Date for the event was set for Thursday and Friday, January 28, 29.

Mrs. Emma Sorg has been appointed chairman of the affair. The sale will be held at her home, 115 Knowles avenue, and the public is invited.

Mrs. Sorg asks all members who have articles to donate to the sale to please bring them to her home at their earliest convenience.

MORE OPPORTUNITY

Opportunity for women to become officers in the Women's Army Auxiliary corps is far greater now than when the initial WAAC Officer's Candidate school was started.

Reason for this is that new increased facilities have made possible the training of large numbers. Many of the original rejections were due to limitations of facilities which allowed the selection of a very small percent of those actually desired.

Records of all applicants rejected for the first Officer Candidate School will now be re-examined. All enrollees will be eligible for training as Officer Candidates, following their four weeks' basic training, provided they meet the necessary qualifications.

The WAAC's need thousands of officers as well as auxiliaries. Opportunity for advancement is great. Visit or write to your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting station. In San Francisco it's 444 Market street; telephone number is YUkon 1935.

Lions Give Scroll To Tax Collector

A wish for the success in his new public office was bestowed on R. C. MacArthur, newly-elected San Mateo county tax collector, by the Daly City-Colma Lions club when they presented him with a scroll, last week, as he was sworn into office.

"In the spirit of friendship we have all enjoyed together and in appreciation for your many personal kindnesses and services to this community," the scroll read, "we, the members of the Daly City-Colma Lions club, and other friends, wish you well. May your new county office bring you much pleasure, and it is our sincere wish that we may continue to enjoy your association often."

the men were "acting in a suspicious manner," and when they investigated, police found three half pints of whiskey and a flashlight hidden under the bushes at the Flournoy address.

Investigating further, they found eight more half pints in some bushes at the rear of 59 Wilson street. Both men had been drinking, according to police.

After three intermittent hours of grilling at police headquarters by Chief Reardon, the sailor admitted to having taken the whiskey, and added that the rest of the case was placed in an automobile. This was recovered soon after by police.

John Schauer At Training Center

John Schauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schauer, 8 Woodrow street, is a newly-arrived soldier at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. This historic military post, on the Mississippi river a few miles south of St. Louis, is a replacement training center for the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command.

There recruits are given vocational aptitude tests to qualify them for important duties in various arms and branches of the services attached with the Army Air Forces. Dependent upon their education, civilian experience and results of the various tests given, recruits will be selected either for technical schools or specialized occupations within the Army. Following a period of instruction in basic military training and discipline the recruits will be sent to active service with the Army Air Forces.

Schauer was employed as a butcher by Fritz Ilgenstein, Farmers Meat company. He attended Jefferson Union high school.

Just In Case You Were Wondering -

WHAT IS INCOME TAX?

The federal income tax is, as the name implies a tax levied upon incomes, and it is payable in relation to the amount of income. Income, for Federal income tax purposes, means in general any compensation for one's services, whether the compensation be in money or in goods or other services; it includes also the net values received for the product of one's labor, as farm produce in the case of a farmer; income from investments; profit from business operations; and other gains from sales and exchanges of goods and property. Certain limited categories of income are, however, tax exempt, and to the extent of such exemption are excluded in computing the tax.

Because of exemptions from the tax given to persons having less than certain stated amounts of income, as well as because of various deductions and credits allowable, only a small proportion of the number of persons receiving income have until recently been subject to the tax. Thus, of the estimated 55 million persons in this country who received income in one form or another during the calendar year 1941, only some 26 million persons were required to file Federal income tax returns for that year, while of these same 26 million, more than 9 million were not taxable due to credits and deductions allowable.

As a result of the lowering of exemptions, many more persons are now subject to the Federal income tax than before, and for the calendar year 1942 it is estimated that more than 35 million persons will file Federal income tax returns. To the large number of persons now subject to the Federal income tax, who have never reported income before for Federal tax purposes, an understanding of the law and applicable regulations is of prime importance.

An income tax return is a declaration on the part of the taxpayer of his total taxable income for the year, together with the various deductions, exemptions, and credits to which he is entitled. It is in reliance upon voluntary disclosure, and the integrity of taxpayers generally, that the cost of administration of the income tax can be kept at a minimum. Though the return is a voluntary statement, any person who willfully makes a return which he does not believe to be true and correct in every material matter is subject to the penalties provided by law.

The first requirement of the law is the filing of an appropriate return. For individuals generally, this must be done by March 15 following the end of the calendar year. The return must be filed with the appropriate Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which is located the legal residence or principal place of business of the person making the return.

PIES AND CAKES FOR A SOLDIER'S PLEASURE... BONDS AND STAMPS FOR A SOLDIER'S POWER

ness of the person making the return.

Under the present law every single person, and every married person not living with husband or wife, having a total income (earnings, together with other income) of $500 or more, and married persons living with husband or wife throughout the taxable year, who have an aggregate income (total earnings of both husband and wife, together with other income) of $1200 or more, regardless of the amount of net income, must file a return.

"Every dime and dollar not vitally needed for absolute necessities should go into WAR BONDS and STAMPS to add to the striking power of our armed forces." —FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.
